Linda presented an update regarding the vendors that were invited this year and advised the commission that several popular vendors are returning: such as Galway Bakers, Great Lakes Irish Wolfhounds, Wings and Talons, Soul Harbor mini horses and therapy dogs.

Sponsorships were discussed and several of them have indicated interest and plan to sponsor. Compass has committed $5,000.

Jenn asked if the Corgi group would have a booth. Jen will contact Ben and ask him to check with his Corgi contacts to see if they want to have a booth.

Craig has the website up and running. He will add information about the sponsors. He will also refine the information about the Tea party. Craig will continue to update the website as new information comes in about the event. He plans to display the website after the 4th of July festivities. Linda suggested calling the reptile area the Dragons Lair. Patrick provided entertainment for both stages to Craig last month. Patrick to send information to Linda regarding entertainment list and times as she will work up the MC for the Hideaway stage script for Patrick and the script for the large tent stage.

Alicia provided the menu for the event. The commission discussed when and where the next meeting in July will take place. Jenn suggested that the commission meet Tuesday July 8th at the Hideaway Brew Garden. The commission concurred with the recommendation.
